Hunterdon Land Trust Hosts Virtual Delaware River Program

FLEMINGTON – From hoagies to historic trees, author/illustrator Hal Taylor has traversed the length of the Delaware River to discover what makes this area special.

Taylor will present an eye-opening account of fascinating facts covered in his most recent book, Artifacts: An Illustrated Treasury of Delaware Valley History, on Thursday, July 15 at 7 p.m.

Hunterdon Land Trust will host this free presentation via Zoom. To reserve your spot, please email mdave@hunterdonlandtrust.org

Taylor spent more than 30 years as a graphic artist before combining his love of illustration with history and writing. He is the author of two other books that spotlight the historic Delaware River.

Taylor's program is sponsored by The National Park Service's Lower Delaware Wild & Scenic Program, which aims to protect the natural, cultural and historic value of the Delaware River.
