"Postcard History Series: High Bridge" by William Honachefsky, Jr.

The history of High Bridge is intertwined with the development of the iron and steel industry.

This new book highlights the history of High Bridge through an amazing collection of postcards. It contains fascinating historical insights and interesting facts and anecdotes from one of New Jersey's old factory towns.

The award winning author has been a passionate advocate for the New Jersey's natural environment and historic heritage and has served on numerous State, County, Municipal and non-profit commissions for over 20 years.
