The Hunterdon County Historical Society announces an afternoon workshop in cooperation with Hunterdon County history blogger, researcher and house history expert Marfy Goodspeed on Saturday, April 1 from 11:00- 12:30 pm. The workshop will be held at the Society's headquarters and library located at 114 Main Street in Flemington.

Marfy Goodspeed is known for her Goodspeed Histories, a New Jersey history and genealogy website and for her business, Goodspeed House Histories. A resident of Hunterdon County since 1976, Marfy has been exploring and sharing the County's history for decades. The session will cover how to begin the research of your home with the resources that are available at the Society's library in addition to other regional repositories. Marfy will take the participants on a step- by- step approach to uncovering the history of an individual's property through general histories, deeds, wills, newspaper articles and much more!

The workshop is free for members of the Historical Society with a $5.00 program fee for non- members. Registration is required as space is limited. Participants may register by calling or e-mailing the Hunterdon County Historical Society @ info@hunterhistory.org or 908-782-1091.
