HLT Farmers' Market Program Focuses on Civil War Aftermath

The Hunterdon Land Trust Farmers' Market will host a talk on "The Civil War's Long Shadow in Southern Hunterdon County" with Hunterdon County Historical Society Trustee John Allen on Sunday, Oct. 20 at 10:30 a.m. in the Dvoor Farm wagon house.

Allen explores how the Civil War affected several Hunterdon County communities including East Amwell, West Amwell, and Raritan and Delaware townships. Allen's research uncovers some fascinating and tragic snapshots of how the Civil War affected the veterans and their families.

HLT's Farmers' Market programs are sponsored by The Tyler Foundation.

Also, join Beatriz Velasquez in the wagon house at 8 a.m. for Farmers' Market yoga. Cost is $15; please bring a mat. Dark Whiskey will perform from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The Farmers' Market, is open from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., features more than 20 local farmers and vendors offering organic produce, all-natural meat, honey, artisan breads, fresh-cut flowers, cheese, eggs, locally roasted coffee, native plants and more. Visitors can enjoy a flatbread pizza made with ingredients provided by local farmers while listening to live music.

Farmers' Market sponsors are Basil Bandwagon Natural Market, Northfield Bank, Northfield Bank, Weidel Real Estate, McPherson & Newland Insurance, and Matt's Red Rooster Grill.
