

Hunterdon Land Trust's Treasure Hunterdon Highlights Our County's Historic Riches

Mark your calendars for Saturday, June 28 and join the Hunterdon Land Trust for its second-annual Treasure Hunterdon event, a fundraiser for the nonprofit organization that encourages you to get out and explore some of our county's most fascinating places.

The fun kicks off at 10 a.m. at our Dvoor Farm House headquarters, 111 Mine St. off the Route 12 circle in Raritan Township. From there, participants will head off to explore several private and public historic sites as we celebrate Hunterdon County's 300th anniversary.

The Ringoes train station in the late 1800s. The Black River & Western Railroad runs the short line between Ringoes and Flemington. (Photo: E.H. Quick Collection.)

This year's itinerary highlights the southern part of our county and includes: Headquarters Farm in Delaware Twp.; the Prallsville Mill in Stockton; Oak Summit School, Old Stone Church and Cemetery in Kingwood, Holcombe Jimison Farmstead in West Amwell; the Black River and Western Railroad in Ringoes and the Marshall House in Lambertville. The event is scheduled to end at 2 p.m. with participants meeting in Lambertville.

Treasure Hunterdon will also feature door prizes and a raffle for a $250 gift certificate for the Hunterdon Land Trust Farmers' Market.

Tickets cost $30 per adult, and $15 for children 16 (free for children 4 and under), with all proceeds benefiting the Land Trust's efforts to safeguard the rural character and special places of Hunterdon County. For tickets and more information, call 908-237-4582 or email info@hunterdonlandtrust.org.